

Peter Stork, CV

EDUCATION

PhD in theology, Australian Catholic University, 2006; MA in theology, ACU, 2003

MS in geoscience, Technische Universität Clausthal-Zellerfeld, Germany, 1958; undergraduate work at the Rheinisch-Westfälische Technische Hochschule Aachen, Germany.

HONARARY POSITIONS

Fellow of the Australian Network of Christians in Science and Technology (ISCAST), 2020–.

Honorary Fellow, Australian Catholic University, Canberra, 2011–2019

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Part-time lecturer; developed and taught the unit “Jesus Christ Today” in the bachelor of theology program, Australian Catholic University, 2008–2010.

More than a decade of designing and leading workshops for corporate managers and staff, 1985-2000.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE IN CORPORATE MANAGEMENT AND GEOSCIENCE

International consulting in corporate management (the anthropology of people in careers) – Sydney, Hong Kong, and the Philippines, 1980–1998.

International consulting in geoscience – Egypt, Sierra Leone, India, Saudi Arabia, Colombia, the United States, and Australia (work in Australia included the development of uranium mining and marketing), 1960–1980.

BOOKS

Cosmos and Revelation: Reimagining God's Creation in the Age of Science (Eugene, OR: Wipf and Stock, 2021)

Human Rights in Crisis: A Cultural Critique (Saarbrücken: VDW, 2007)

RESEARCH SEMINARS, PUBLIC LECTURES, AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

ISCAST/COSAC Conference

"A Matter of Life and Death: Keeping the Cosmos in Theology," August 2020.

Australian National University Emeritus Faculty Public Lecture Series

"A Theologian among Scientists: Exploring the Intersection of Science and Theology Based on the Work of Jürgen Moltmann," 2011.

"The Ambiguity of Human Rights," 2008.

ACU Faculty Research Seminars

"The Emergence of Human Consciousness: On the Biological Substrate of Human Spirituality," May 2020.

"Falling in Love with the Earth for Heaven's Sake," May 2019.

"Sexuality, Love, and the Symbol of the Trinity in the Work of Georg Baudler," September 2017.

"Lessons from an Unfinished Universe: Reflections on the Threshold of Hope," October 2016.

"Deep Incarnation," July 2015.

"Exploring the Invisible Link between Cosmology and Theology and Its Implications for Christianity," April 2014.

"Science, Christianity and the New Universe Story," May 2012.

"Coming to Terms with Big History: Implications of Evolutionary Time Scales," August 2011.

Canberra Christian-Jewish Dialogue Group

"Exploring the Invisible Link between Cosmology and Theology," June 2014.

Holy Covenant Anglican Church

"At Home in the Cosmos? Musings towards a Theological Cosmology," October 2014.

Anglican News

Following the publication of Christian Attitudes to Science: A Survey of Churches in Canberra, the Bishop of the Anglican Diocese of Canberra and Goulburn, the Rt. Rev. Stuart Robinson, invited me and my coauthor to make the findings available to a wider audience via two articles in the Anglican News (circulation 20,000) with special reference to the Anglican response to the survey, February and March 2014.

GRANTS AND FELLOWSHIPS

Australian Research Theology Foundation grant supporting the data collection and analysis of the survey of Christian attitudes toward science, 2012–2013.

Australian Research Theology Foundation grant for the design of a cross-denominational online survey of Christian attitudes toward science, 2011–2012.

Australian Postgraduate Award, $53,000 funding for doctoral research, 2003–2006.

Signadou Dominican Prize for academic excellence, 2003.

Carmelite Titus Bradsma Award, 2001.